GO GREEN

The buzz words are everywhere: alternative fuel, new methods of powering motors, intelligent cars, traffic management systems. But what is behind all this? What does our mobile future really look like? What comes when the oil goes?

Go Green takes a look at the cars of the future, the traffic infrastructure of the next decade, and the new ideas that will change the nature of driving. Ideas, developments, trends: Go Green will prepare you for our future ways of getting around. It has its finger at the pulse of tomorrow, telling you today what tomorrow brings.
