Which is the best all-wheel-drive system? Who has the best concept for environmentally-friendly technology? What car can claim to be the hottest newcomer of the year?

Motorvision's reporters take viewers behind the scenes of the automobile industry, visit the showroom and take a wide range of models out on the highway, on the race circuit or off-road to give them thorough testing. Streetwise gives the viewer insights in the latest trends in the market and reveals whether the car makers' promises are being kept.
